Chapter 1: What is faith?

“...faith is for things I do not already possess in the natural realm. It is for those things needed in my life, which I do not yet enjoy the use of.”

Chapter 2: Hope - the blueprint

“Hope is a strong desire, accompanied by a strong expectation and trust in an anticipated result or event. Hope is the blueprint, the vision, the expected end result.”

Chapter 3: Faith - the substance

“If hope can be described as the body, then faith is its life blood. Blood is not what gives you life, but your life is in your blood so that if you lose your blood, you lose your life...”

Chapter 4: How to have faith

“Everything is received by faith, as regards the things of God, your Father. Your entire relationship with Him or lack thereof will depend on whether or not you believe in the love of your Father for you and that He will do for you and give to you the things promised in His Word.”

Chapter 5: Abraham the father of our faith

“Abraham is the father of our faith because he is the father of both the Jew, the circumcised under the law, and the Gentile, the uncircumcised without the law. Had it not been for Abraham and his believing God and establishing the principle of righteousness by faith, neither Jew nor Gentile could have received salvation by faith in Jesus Christ.”

Chapter 6: The law requires no faith

“The law could not provide anyone with righteousness, because no one was able to keep the law. In order to be declared righteous by means of the law, you had to be blameless under the law.”

Chapter 7: The revelation of Jesus Christ

“There can be no understanding of faith without a revelation of Jesus Christ and who we are in Him.”

Chapter 8: Faith like a grain of mustard seed

“The focus should not be on the size, strength or indeed the growth of faith, but acquiring revelation from the Word of God.”

Chapter 9: You have a renewed mind

“You should know that your mind has been renewed in Christ, that you have the mind of Christ, by choosing to believe the Word of God and relying on the help of the Holy Spirit to think according to the mercies of God.”

Chapter 10: The righteousness of faith speaks

“First you choose to believe and then you release your faith by commanding that which you believe to come into being. To believe is to speak.”

Chapter 11: Faith receives

“To most of us, the receiving is viewed as the delivery, the manifestation of the things hoped for, that is, the moment when the guy from the courier company knocks on your door to hand you your package...”

Chapter 12: Faith is a rest

“Faith receives and rests assured in knowing that the result is guaranteed, because of Christ and His finished work on the cross.”

Chapter 13: Faith and patience

“There can be no true revelation of faith and how it works, without understanding the role of patience.”

Chapter 14: Most holy faith

When Jude writes “...build yourselves up on your most holy faith...”, he is referring to receiving revealed knowledge that will allow you to build on the foundation of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Chapter 15: Last, but not the least

“Faith in God is not to live by signs and wonders, always looking for miracles in order to believe.”
